Love's Awakening

The Heart Story of a Woman's Lasting Affections

BY ADLE GARRISON

Madge Still Lenny as she and Ver tizen Return to Beach To Meet Lillian

AS I left the roadside inn with Philip Vertizen and saw Dicky car parked just behind mine upon the curving driveway I realized why it was that my impulsive tempera mental husband had been able to pre sent so disarming appearance when he confronted us coming away from the restaurant. My presence there had not been a total surprise to him and although he could not have expected Mr. Vertizen to be my companion—unless indeed he had overheard our telephone conversation—yet his quick penology of my every action outside my regular domestic routine must have led him to anticipate the situation he had encountered.

He had entered it off beautifully however. For a man less observant than my employer he must have seemed perfectly good humored over the meeting and even sincere in the careless acquiescence to Mr. Ver tizen's invitation of Lillian and me to luncheon. But I guessed that the great dramatic producer whose read ing of facial expressions was one of his outstanding accomplishments had seen as I had that my husband was controlling his jealous anger in much the manner of a man sitting upon the safety valve of a steam en gine and that he could not have kept up that masked pretense of gaiety much longer.

My own feelings were a curious mixture of uneasiness as to Dicky's mood when I should next meet him, and curiosity concerning the coinci dence which had brought him to the inn just when Mr. Vertizen and I were having tea there. But, of course, I roused on hint of these re actions to my employer, and he was equally chary of comment, saying only as we left the inn behind us: "I give you fair warning that I shall follow your husband's advice and insist that you and Mrs. Under wood lunch with me."

"Mrs. Underwood will have to de cide that," I said demurely, but the sneering glance he was not de ceived by my apparent meekness, and checked at my reply.

"Remember your husband, an ex cellent authority, told me that you hated us couples," he said dryly.
"You evidently have already made up your mind to turn me down, but I am not going to be dissuaded so easily."

I made no reply, for I had seen but the concrete road into which my husband's car was turning.

Ver tizen's eyes opened wide. Then he e shook his head. It wasn't it. It was e found on a side road about half a e mile off the main road and the main e road boss runs to about a million e paces besides Tuckaway camp.

GIVES ADDRESS

Pastor Speaks at Meeker Grade Commencement

MEEKER, May 17.—Rev. M. J. Plotts spoke to the eighth graders who are graduating from the Meeker school this year at their commencement held at the school Wednesday afternoon. After the invocation Russell Clayton gave the salutatory address. "Nobility" was spoken by Doris Scherzer and "Cassidinea" by Earl Walbert. Clyde Smith played the cornet solo "Remembrance." The class prophecy was read by Arnett Faust and Donald McKim spoke "The Fool's Prayer." Marian Shrock gave "Graduation." John Plunk gave "Dante Webster's 'Bunker Hill Address.'" Jack Sims spoke "Hawthorne's 'Childhood'" and Loren Shirk "Travel." "Things More Excellent" was presented by Wilbur Parks. The class will be read by Willis Clark and George Washburn sang "One Footing Hour." Paul Carpenter delivered the valedictory.

PIANOS

Our customers receive more real value per dollar spent here than can be secured elsewhere for the reason that our overhead is low, volume of sales high and our terms most reasonable. Come and see our extensive line of pianos in our display room. Piano Dept., Paddock Transfer Co., 110 E. Center St.

WITH EDNA S. DUTTON

GLAS SEDGWICK follows because the story of her life is so interesting. The author has written a book which has won the approval of the best writers of the day. It is a story of a woman who has lived a life of adventure and has been a part of the most interesting events of the last century. The story is told in a way which is both interesting and instructive. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman.

Monica will be lonely. The arrival of Captain Lupton develops an interesting angle to the already interesting story. The story is told in a way which is both interesting and instructive. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman.

The story is beautiful. It is a story of a woman who has lived a life of adventure and has been a part of the most interesting events of the last century. The story is told in a way which is both interesting and instructive. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman. as possible. Captain Armstrong had been on his farm in Scotland for some time. He was a man of great energy and had been a part of the most interesting events of the last century. The story is told in a way which is both interesting and instructive. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman.

Fort Edward passed the trouble. The story is told in a way which is both interesting and instructive. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman.

shelter of Fort William. The story is told in a way which is both interesting and instructive. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman.

The force of the story is so great. The story is told in a way which is both interesting and instructive. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman.

"The Road to France," New Travel Book

Two twentieth century highways are told the story of what they saw on and off the Atlantic coast from London to Dover in the last year. Gordon Maxwell writes it and Donald Maxwell illustrates it. The Road to France was issued May 3. Two other travel books in the series are "The Road to Rome" and "The Road to Paris". The Road to France is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the life of a woman.

can't be wrong

Kellogg's Corn Flakes must be crisper, more delicious—or 12,000,000 people would not daily prefer them to all other corn flakes.
Kellogg originated corn flakes and nobody has ever been able to equal that Kellogg wonder flavor.

Enjoy Kellogg's Corn Flakes for lunch and dinner as well as breakfast. Fine for the children's evening meal. So easy to digest.

Try them with canned peaches and milk or cream.
Look for the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Served by hotels, restaurants. On dining-cars.

To Make Even Inexpensive Glass and China Sparkle

Simple New Way Does Wonders And Is Kind To Pretty Hands—Use Any Ordinary Soap

Even the most inexpensive table china and glassware can be made to look far better than its price in a simple way. It can be given the brilliancy and sparkle of the most costly kinds; and glassware particularly is judged by its sparkle.

Simply add one teaspoonful of the cleansing preparation called CLIMALENE to your water. Use the same soap you ordinarily do, but use only ONE-FOURTH the usual quantity. Wash as usual.

This preparation is a grease dissolvent, while soap is, strictly speaking, a grate. Thus it gives shine and sparkle while soap often leaves a greasy film that's hard to get rid of even with the most careful drying.

Most hotels use this method to make glass and china gleam. Housewives like it not only for this reason, but because it acts to soften and whiten skin fabric of the hands.
Results are surprising. Try it. Get at any grocery store in 10c or 25c package.
Just ask your grocer for CLIMALENE.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL EXHIBITION PLANNED

Display This Year To Be Held in Uptown Room, Set for Next Week

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week have been set as probable days for the annual display sponsored by L. H. Becker, coordinator of vocational school work in the city and his assistants, C. L. Bruch and J. H. Smith. The exhibition will be held in an uptown classroom, similar to the school shop as in previous years and will be opened through the day and at night.

The exhibition will include displays

Soften hard water with Melo and see how easy the dishes are to wash

Hard water combines with soap to make scum. Scum leaves a dirty ring around the dishes. Scum leaves a dirty glaze on dishes. But put a tablespoonful of Melo in the dishpan! Then see!

No scum! Sparkling dishes! The water delightfully soft and suds! Use Melo wherever you want soft water. It makes the soap more effective. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is an unusual cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

of machine shop products from the vocational department of Harding high school, a display of printing from the Harding high school shop, an exhibit of domestic art by the pupils of M. Trucilla Smith, teacher of domestic science and art manual training, and a display of home mechanics work from Central Junior High school. An annual edition of the vocational department will be printed in the high school press and distributed to Marion people interested in the work. The display will be held during the day and at several hours each evening.

LONGER LIFE for your clothes

Would you be interested in seeing how a modern laundry washes clothes? Anthony Laundry methods are new. Anthony Laundry methods are entirely different. We have the system of accurately washing clothes down to an exact science. We know how to bring water to rain softness—water with every bit of hardness taken out of it. We know how to combine Ivory Soap and its creamy suds into exactly the treatment that each piece requires to restore it to perfect cleanliness.

We know that you would be amazed at the snowy texture of your linens when they return from our laundry, the enhanced beauty of your laces and delicate pieces, the substantial appearance of your shirts and collar. If it is not far better than anything you have seen before, then modern science is a failure. We know that all this means LONGER LIFE FOR YOUR CLOTHES. But we want you to share this knowledge with us.

WE ARE MAKING THIS UNUSUAL OFFER—

A Trial wash is the only way you can test out our services. We are going to make that trial as easy as possible for you. Friday is the day of bargain offers all through this paper, but there is no bargain in tonight's Star that is more important than this one.

Send us your flat pieces. Your Sheets, Pillow Cases, Cotton Blankets, Spreads, Napkins, Tablecloths, Bath and Hand Towels, Wash Cloths, Handkerchiefs, etc. Pack the flat work bundle, and phone 2333. That is all you have to do. We will call for the bundle, wash it in ten complete changes of water, iron it and fold it, and return it to you ready to put away in your linen closet. No muss, no worry, and all at this remarkably low price—
